Slatwall Hangrails and Hangrail Brackets

Click a product for details and ordering. Listings checked October 13, 2026.

Slatwall hangrails are a versatile way to easily re-configure your retail store slat wall display. They are typically used to display clothing or any other item that can be displayed in a row on a hanger. We carry a variety of sizes and styles to best suit your store display. For the best lateral stability, our 12" x 22" one piece or u shaped hangrails work great. One piece hangrails are available in shiny(bright) chrome or black. Sometimes your slatwall display needs a special size hanging bar, so we also sell 2', 4', 6' or 8' rectangular tubing hangrails, which combined with rectangular tubing hangrail brackets, enable you to create the display of your choice. Caution is recommended when you add a lot of weight to slatwall, it can break. If you have heavy items to display on your slat wall, consider adding metal "power bars" in your slatwall grooves. If you need help, we can help you design your slatwall display to show you how to distribute the weight of your products properly.
